Ideally positioned on the fringe of the V&A Waterfront within the Cape Town International Convention Centre precinct and in Cape Town's CBD, this state-of-the-art hotel offers no less than 360 degree views of the best the Mother City has to offer. For lovers of the arts, the City Hall and Artscape Theatre showcasing a variety of opera, ballet, and drama are within close proximity of the hotel.

Set against a backdrop of mesmerizing ocean and mountain views with sea water canal running through the hotel's bridge wing and water taxis ultimately completing the scene, Harbour Bridge Hotel & Suites links the city to the sea.

The hotel offers clear lines and high-quality furnishings, along with pure luxury and modern elegance. The Harbour Bridge Restaurant portrays a convenient and picturesque location along the canal. The menu offers a variety of flavoursome food that is simple and uncomplicated. In line with the cuisine, the décor is crisp and clean and makes for relaxed dining within a chic environment.

Other facilities include a sun-worshiper's pool, sundeck and ample secure undercover parking.

The Business Centre includes internet, faxing, printing and photocopying which is at an additional service charge. High speed wireless internet connection for individual laptops is available.
