40 Years of Computers in Education What Works?

4 – 7 July 2005
University of Stellenbosch
Cape Town South Africa

Organised by:
IFIP TC3
Computer Society of South Africa
SBS Conferences

IFIP (The International Federation for Information Processing) is a multinational federation of professional and technical organizations concerned with information processing.

www.wcce2005.org.za

The eighth IFIP World Conference on Computers in Education (WCCE 2005) is an IFIP event hosted by the Computer Society of South Africa in association with IFIP TC 3 (Technical Committee — Computers in Education).

WCCE 2005 will explore the use of Information and Communication Technologies in Education and the Teaching of Informatics. The conference will be held at the University of Stellenbosch just outside Cape Town, South Africa and will provide an opportunity for participants to:

- review progress since WCCE 2001
- report on successful (and unsuccessful) ICT projects in Education
- predict trends for the future.

It will be a conference for everyone involved in education and training with an interest in learning more about the potential for ICT in education. WCCE 2005 will be of interest to both beginners and experienced practitioners who wish to update their knowledge and skills.

WHO SHOULD ATTEND?

- Teachers
- Professional Trainers
- Teacher Educators
- Researchers
- Informatics Experts
- Policy Makers
- Curriculum Designers
- IT Vendors
- Manufacturers
- Learners

WHY ATTEND?

The conference aims to provide a historical perspective, as well as a vision of the future — thus an assessment of what has, or has not, worked well, in addition to the sharing of where current research efforts and other actions might lead us in the future.

We are seeking contributions to a range of activities and invite you to send in ideas for:

- Presenting a Paper
- Giving a Demonstration
- Presenting a Poster
- Presenting a workshop
- Presenting a tutorial

All proposals will be reviewed by an international panel of experts.

POTENTIAL THEMES & TOPICS

Proposals are invited on a wide range of subjects relevant to the theme and may include, but are not limited to:

- Knowledge as a resource
- Networking the learner
- ICT as a catalyst for change
- Learner-centred teaching
- Flexible and distance Learning
- Integration of ICT into education and training
- Innovative pedagogical methods
- Changing role of tutors
- Teacher Education
- Informatics as a subject for study
- Educational software and hardware
- Equity and social issues
- Progress in developing countries
- Evolution of national policies
- Professional development and vocational education
- Evaluation and accreditation
- The role of the school in a knowledge based society
- ICT and the changing school
- Why they failed: unsuccessful projects
- History of Educational Computing

The conference will deal with innovative ideas, pilot experiments, Large-scale projects and national policies.

EXHIBITION

A trade exhibition relevant to ICT in education will take place alongside the conference, where suppliers will gain exposure to the delegates and decision-makers participating in the conference.

Exhibition space: will be available in modules of 6 and 9m² and multiples thereof.

Exhibition costs are: R1000 per m² (excluding 14% VAT)

The exhibition stand package includes:

shell scheme, lighting, power, carpets and name panel.

SUBMITTING CONTRIBUTIONS

All proposed contributions must be submitted in English and in electronic format (MS Word or similar) to: wcce2005@sbs.co.za
